HAZEL GREEN, KY.: WEDNESDAY.....APRIL 15, 1885.

LOCAL NEWS.

Born—To the wife of A. J. Cox, April 7th, a daughter.

Born—To the wife of George Beasley, April 14th, a daughter.

Mrs. Green Lacy is very low with consumption and not expected to live.

The early bird catches the worm and the cold snap catches the early farmer.

Mr. A. T. Pieratt, of Ezel, spent Sunday last with relatives and friends in Hazel Green.

We are sorry to say that Daniel Tolliver and wife are very low with typhoid pneumonia.

Miss Ella Johnson who has been seriously ill since her return from Frenchburg, is convalescent.

J. M. Quillin, one of the prominent lawyers at the Campton bar, has been quite ill for some time.

Monday, one of our neighbors shipped three barrels of apple brandy to Mt. Sterling. No demand for it here.

A little son of R. D. Motley, living on Grassy, on Sunday, fell and stuck a knife blade in his head just above the eye.

Col. R. J. Samuel has rented his dwelling in town and has decided to board. Clay, the devil, says he will be bored.

Married—On Thursday April 9, on Holy married, Mr. David Rose to Miss Polly Holland, Rev. J. T. Pieratt officiating.

Born—On the 8th inst., to the wife of A. T. Gibbs, of Lacey's creek, a boy weighing 10 pounds. Name—John Marion.

Mark Lacy, one of our pioneer citizens aged 92, is lying at the point of death. Rapidly passing away the old generation and but few remain now.

"Logston" Wilson, of the Champion mill company, last Thursday killed a rat which measured 17 inches from the tip of his tail to the end of his nose.

Rev. J. T. Pieratt will preach at the John Rose school house, on Lacey creek, at 11 a. m., next Sunday; and at Aunt Lettie Little's at 3 p. m. same day.

Farmers who wish to dispose of their land cannot do better than by consulting with us. Come and see us if you wish to sell a piece of real estate.

Read our Mt. Sterling advertisements, and when you go to that city to buy anything be sure to call on them, and then only—if you wish to save money.

Rev. E. P. Mickell preached Sunday morning and night in the M. E. church of this place. The Presbyterian church building not being ready for occupancy.

Elder Reynolds, of Bourbon county, a prominent divine of the Christian church, will begin a protracted meeting in our town on, or soon after, the 10th of May.

Now is the time to bring in eggs, chickens, meat, vegetables, etc. If you want our paper, this is an easy way to pay for it, and will be an accommodation to us.

D. S. Godsey, our new nominee for legislative honors, has rented the Day House in this place and moved to it. Mr. Godsey will doubtless prove an excellent landlord.

The trouble in Rowan county has been settled by the factions heretofore engaged signing a kind of treaty of peace. This was recommended by the state's committee of investigation, as the better and most economical way to settle it.

On Monday, April 13th, we will return to our old stand on Maysville street, the Phoenix Stables, where we will again be first-class, and our stables will be in better shape than ever before. With thanks for past favors, we solicit your future patronage.
B. F. ROBINSON, Supt.

Rev. Howard Eallen, of the Christian church, and one of the supervisors for our county passed through town on Monday, to meet with the other supervisor at Campton, for the purpose of inspecting the assessors' books. While there he will hold meetings every night, thus killing two birds with one stone—serving his Master and his fellow-man.

A Vindication.

Editor of THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD:

Knowing the pleasure with which you open your columns to the vindication of private character, I desire to say on behalf of a neighbor whom we have thoroughly tested and all know to be one of our best citizens, Mr. L. Hatfield the father of M. Hatfield referred to in your last issue, that he returned from Pike county late on Friday evening, and early on Saturday morning, afflicted as he is, he swam Red river and informed me that he had learned that his son had escaped jail, and that he was anxious for him to surrender, return to jail and stand his trial, and I immediately set out to accomplish his wish. I met and co-operated with Capt. Punch, and late in the afternoon, Monday, met M. Hatfield, who was approaching us and had no weapons whatever. He said he had not left jail in order to avoid trial, but merely to see his family friends. His father admonished him to refrain from a repetition of such an adventure, and to remain and stand his trial; to all of which Captain Punch will bear testimony. And further, having met with Jas. Hatfield, of Montgomery county, and knowing that it is a good citizen, I wish to say that I am reliably informed that it was not at Spencer Station and in Jas. Hatfield's neighborhood that Capt. Punch came near running into the trio of escapes, but on the contrary, it was at Chambers Station, further on their road home.

Not at the instance of L., or Jas. Hatfield, or for any other purpose than a desire that no wrong imputation should fall upon either of them, do I forward you this statement; and I hope that any paper that has published the circumstances of the escape and re-arrest of M. Hatfield in terms susceptible of a different construction in regard to L. and J. Hatfield than the one I here give, will in the cause of right, make the correction.
A. B. EDWARDS.

A Voice From Virginia.

CEDAR BLUFF, Tazewell county, Va.
Editor of THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD:

Not long since we were gloriously surprised by a visit from THE HERALD. It was hailed triumphantly. Mouth of Indian high school is progressing very finely. About 85 pupils enrolled; 3 good teachers, viz., Prof. W. L. Mayo, of Prestonsburg, Ky., principal, Miss Ollie L. Gillespie, of Cedar Bluff, assistant, and Miss Carrie Spotts, of Jeffersonville, Va., music teacher. Several new buildings are going up in the little town of Indian. R. F. Cicil has bought another lot and is going to build another dwelling before long. Married—April 1st, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Marion McGuire, Miss Florence McGuire and Mr. Robert Tatum, both of Cedar Bluff. Rev. P. J. Lockhart officiating. May they have a peaceful and happy journey across the ocean of life. Indian Sabbath school is expecting to give a May party ere long. It is a prosperous school and doing well. Mr. Thomas A. Repass, superintendent, and Mr. J. B. Hurt, secretary. The calisthenic and classic classes for ladies, and the philomathean society for gentlemen, are very interesting and instructive to the pupils of Indian high school. Dr. James Perry and Mr. Jas. M. McGuire are erecting two fine store houses in Indian. They will help the looks of the town considerably. E. H. Scott, who has been in Jeffersonville for some time, has returned to his home in Indian to remain, to the joy of his many friends. The Blue Sulphur springs at Indian are a resort for the invalids and young people of the burg; especially on Sunday evenings. Mrs. T. M. Scott, who has been on the sick list for some time, is convalescent, and it is hoped she will entirely recover. At last, spring is here. She was rather backward in opening her dreamy eyes moistened with the sparkling dewdrops. Success! glorious success! to the welcome, interesting and appreciated HERALD.
GARKEY.

Personal Paragraphs.

Jas. Elkins, of Lane, was in our town on Saturday.

Jos. P. Rose paid our sanction a visit last Saturday.

Stephen G. Samples and wife, of Ezel, were in town last week.

Mortie Swango, whose illness we noted last week, is out again.

D. J. Lykins, of Caney, took supper at the Pieratt house Sunday.

Ex-sheriff S. M. Tutt, of Campton, was in town Saturday on a business visit.

J. C. Clark, of West Liberty, was in town Saturday; a guest of the Pieratt house.

Andrew Lindon and wife, of Gilmore creek, paid Hazel Green a visit last Saturday.

Judge B. F. Day, of Mt. Sterling, passed through town yesterday, en route to Jackson.

Jackson Day and his son Kiser, of White Oak, Morgan county, were in town one day last week.

Sheriff W. F. Hanks, of Bates county, Mo., has been visiting friends here, but left Tuesday for his home.

Lullie, one of J. T. Day's little twin daughters, was quite sick last week, and her sister Lillie was like one lost for a few days, but Lillie is now better, and all is serene. They are bright children, and the townspeople miss their cherry smiles when anything is wrong with either.

Prof. N. B. Hayes, of the high school at this place, will deliver a lecture on "The growth of the United States," to the people of Maytown, on Saturday night next. Do not fail to attend, as you will be amply rewarded in so doing. Mr. Hayes is a scholarly gentleman and handles the statistics of the country in an able manner. He has mastered the details of his subject and will be able to give a more lucid description of the subject than any one we know. Hear him by all means.

Jack Ringo, sheriff of Menifee, W. T. Day, marshal of Maytown, and Jno. Cox, of this county, were guests of the Pieratt House on Monday night last. They had in charge Al. Little, whom they had arrested at Jackson, Monday, on a warrant from the U. S. court at Louisville, charging him with attempted pension frauds. They were here met by U. S. Detective Welch, and the party left Tuesday morning with their prisoner for Louisville, where he will have his examining trial.

CORRESPONDENCE.

EASTERN KENTUCKY NEWS BY COUNTIES.

Reported by Special Correspondents from All Points in the Mountains.

CAMPTON.

Capt. W. L. Hurst, of Stillwater, is in town taking depositions.

Mrs. J. M. Quillin is confined to her room with a severe attack of fever.

J. M. Hody, assistant geologist, is here working up the geology of this section.

S. G. Miner, of Lake, Ills., is here prospecting on business best known to himself.

Died—April 4th, Bent Roberts, he leaves a wife and one child; also, on the 11th, the wife of Floyd Roberts.

T. N. Carter, tinner, of Mt. Sterling, was here this week for the purpose of covering the bay-window of the court house.

Wolfe County.
GILMORE.

Farmers are busy preparing for their crops.

Wheat is looking some better, but bad is the best.

Jamer H. Vest has just returned from Quicksand, Breathitt county, and reports hard times in that country. Farmers are out of roughness and corn is very scarce, stock is quite poor, and some are dying of starvation. He called to one little boy to know what was killing the boys in that country. "Starving to death," was his reply. He says there is more timber in the water there than was ever known before; so a tide would be a great blessing to the people. Judge G. S. Miller's wife had been in a critical condition but was thought to be improving.

UNCLE REMUS.

Morgan County.
UPPER GRASSY.

We love THE HERALD.

Corn is worth $1 per bushel, and scarce at that.

Wheat crops are not so badly injured by freezing as was thought.

The widow Geo. F. Barker has just returned from visiting her mother on White Oak creek.

It is common to hear H. G. Chaney's huge sledge hammer banging and whanging these frosty mtrnings.

Wm. Tolliver has bought a fine lot of lumber and is having the shingles cut this week to cover his house.

Farmers are all making a nice start for a large crop, in our vicinity, but Dick Phipps, and he is tooting around his steam-mill. I guess he wants to be out of corn another year.

LOST CREEK

Success to THE HERALD.

Judge Strong is improving slowly, but L. H. Noble is no better.

Our farmers are quite busy making garden and preparing their farm land for the coming crops.

Our neighbors are losing their cattle very fast. S. H. Combs lost four fine steers a few days since.

Born—On April 3rd, to the wife of N. H. Sally, a ten-pound boy; and to the wife of James Centers, a girl.

There is considerable sickness in the neighborhood, but Dr. J. L. Duff is having fine success healing the afflicted.

J. G. Wells, living about a mile southeast of here, last week found a solid four-foot vein of canal coal on his farm. A fortune for some capitalist.

Our log men have almost given up hope of a tide, this spring, to take their fine poplar and walnut timber to market, but if our faith is strong enough we will pull through.

CANEY.

Success to THE HERALD.

Jno. W. Burton is very low with fever.

Jos. C. Lykins, of Campton, is here on business.

Judge Amos Davis is here buying cattle for the Mt. Sterling market.

H. Burns Cox, of West Liberty, paid our town a flying visit last week.

Miss Susan Goodwin, of this place, is visiting relatives in Wolfe county.

Judge Wm. Lykins has returned from Magoffin county, where he has been attending circuit court.

J. C. Sebastian has returned home from Lee county, where he went to attend the sale of the property of Plummer Kincaid, deceased.

Patton Martin, of this place, has a child that has five fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot. It is well developed and is about two years old.

It was with intense sorrow that we learned of the death of Rev. Isaac Lykins, which occurred at his home on Grassy creek a few days ago. He had many friends and relatives here to mourn his loss.

LEX.

Texas fever is raging in this vicinity.

Mrs. T. P. Lumpkins is very low with fever.

Most people in this vicinity think Wm. Neal was innocent.

Sam. S. Dennis left for Frankfort this morning on business.

Stock is high, corn is scarce and money isn't plenty in Morgan.

Most of the farmers in this vicinity are plowing their sod land.

Mrs. W. T. Swango, of Hazel Green, is visiting her father's family on Brokeleg.

Mrs. Dr. Nickell has been visiting relatives and friends at West Liberty the past week.

We understand that John Amyx, a student of the Hazel Green high school, got badly April fooled.

As soon as men run their logs I think THE HERALD will get a number of subscribers at this office.

R. M. Pieratt bought a beautiful stallion at the sale of Wm. Prater, deceased. He is the only pedigreed horse in the mountains.

Rev. D. G. Combs has organized a prayer meeting in this place, which will be held every Wednesday night. We hope it may prove a success.

J. M. Pieratt sold to Cortes Kash a beautiful bay cow, four years old, smooth horns and lofty hip-bones, for $27.50 cash. We trust she may give enough milk to supply the family and have some left for the pig.

TITEUP.

MAYTOWN.

Winter lingers in the lap of spring.

Marshal Day and John Cox have returned from Mt. Sterling.

Chap Swango, of Bath county, is spending a few days with his brother, J. C. Swango.

F. Cox, of Red river, was in town last week, looking after the interest of his tobacco crop.

R. M. Wells, of Menifee county, Jack Ringo's antagonist for sheriff, has been in town on business.

Martin Cole and Berry Jones, of Menifee county, were in town last week, making a settlement with May & Swango.

Rev. R. W. Landram, of Breathitt county, is in town purchasing flour from the Maytown mill company, and dry goods and groceries from May & Swango, which he will forward at once to Lost Creek.

J. H. Lackey, of Morgan county, started last week for Minnesota to make that state his future home, thereby taking the advice of Horace Greeley: "Go west young man and grow up with the country." Experience and observation teach us that the advice of the old man is not good. No country on this "terraqueous speck" exceeds our rock-ribbed mountains in many respects.

The suggestion made to the stock men of the mountains, by Col. R. J. Samuel, in last week's issue of THE HERALD, is a move in the right direction. Your correspondent has been talking the matter up with the farmers of this section; and so far they heartily acquiesce in the suggestion, and offer to do what they can to make the enterprise what it ought to be, and doubtless will be, a decided success. Colonel, keep the ball in motion.

DUSTER

Menifee County.
FRENCHBURG.

Dr. W. G. Carter, of West Liberty, is visiting Judge W. S. Pierce.

Penix & Son have moved their drug-store to the house formerly occupied by H. L. Hackney, as a dry goods store, on Walnut street.

Elder D. G. Combs immersed one person at his meeting, last Sunday. He will hold a protracted meeting here, beginning the first Saturday in May. By the way, you have your church directory wrong, for this place. Elder Combs does not preach for the Methodists on the second Sunday. Perhaps they would have him to change his doctrine before they would employ him.

County court first Monday. The most important business was: A change enlarging school district No. 1. (Frenchburg); the appointment of James Armistead admr. of the estate of James Armistead, deceased; and the trial of Aaron Combs, on the charge of bastardy, made by Nancy Fugett. The defendant was acquitted, but the commonwealth appealed to circuit court.

ROTHWELL.

Wm. Slusher and his wife have separated, divided beds, and Will has moved to Slate.

The masons are at work repairing the lime kiln. It will be about one month before any lime can be burned. Jack and John Sowell will operate the kiln this season.

Frank Hutchison and wife, who separated some weeks ago, after due consideration, buried the tomahawk, and are again seen around the home circle as happy as though nothing had ever occurred.

One morning last week as the train was returning to Mt. Sterling, the coach jumped the track and turned over. Fortunately no one was seriously hurt, but some of the passengers were considerably scared.

Mack Landav's wife and two small children were poisoned some time ago by Ivy syrup. They thought they were using Blackroot. They are in a very critical condition, but the physicians think they will recover.

Col. L. M. Flournoy, who is logging on Red river, was over last week and purchased him a bachelor outfit and will spend the springtime among the birds and flowers of Chimney-top. Success to you, colonel, may your pot ever boil strong.

LONGFELLOW.

Powell County.
MERRILL.

Success to THE HERALD.

Farmers are very busy sowing oats and getting ready for corn planting.

There were several indictments made against the whisky dealers in this county.

Misses Rottie Knox and Rosa Lee were visiting at R. C. Mansfield's one day last week.

Mrs. Sallie Hoskins has rented her farm to Wm. Johnson, who will tend it in corn.

The Powell County mills, at this place, owned by Thompson & Mansfield, are getting as much grinding as they can do.

Will Alexander, who was indicted for robbing a store at Clay City, last spring term of circuit court, was arraigned for trial at last term, and, pleading guilty, was sentenced to the state prison for one year. Verily, the way of the transgressor is hard.

DTUDLEY.

Emory James, of this county, a short time since sent us three highly decorated eggs, the product of a hen on his place. The frescing is said to be just as it appeared when the eggs were found in the nest, and certainly surpasses anything ever before offered by nature's strange freaks. The patterns we have examined are quite unique and the work is that of a master hand. The colors used by her henship in the embellishment of these eggs is a brilliant carmine, fawn and a rich cream. She is a born artist, and if Barnum or some other great showman owned her he might make a fortune. Mr. James is saving up all her eggs now, preparatory to setting them for incubation, when he hopes the eggs will produce calico by the bolt in such fancy patterns as to drive eastern print works from the trade.

If she produces an egg every day, and each egg when hatched produces a bolt of calico of color as fast as the color on the egg, it can be sold at not less than ten cents per yard and will make him rich.

Attention is called to the sale of Mrs. Caroline Swango which takes place tomorrow, at which time the following property will be disposed of: 1 horse, 1 fine saddle and harness mare, 1 cow and calf, 3 cows, 1 yearling calf, farming utensils, household and kitchen furniture, &c. &c. Terms: all sums of $5 and less cash; over that amount on a credit of twelve months with 6 per cent. interest.

Insurance, in order to be reliable, must be guaranteed by successful and well-known corporations; the policies of doubtful or experimental companies being dear at any price. The best policies are always the cheapest. Insurers should select their companies as they would a banker, or a person who is to hold their funds in trust. Look to quality as the paramount consideration of insurance. Respectfully,
